

Ceiling U profiles are used for forming metal bearing framework at internal space curtain walls and suspended ceiling applications. It is screwed to the wall at suspended ceiling level during suspended ceiling construction, and serves as both level arranger and balancer. During curtain wall construction, it is applied at locations, where system joints with ground and ceiling.

It is made up of hot dip galvanized 0,40; 0,45; 0,50 and 0,60 mm thick carbon steel sheets by means cold forming method in order to prevent corrosion.

There are lengthwise channels in order to maintain strength.

Its surface is perforated for maintaining installation easiness.

Complies with TS EN 14195 (Metal Framework Components, Used on Gypsum Plate Systems) standard.

